Summer School 2018/2019 Instructors

Raffaella Bertazzoli (Università di Verona), Pietro Gibellini (Università Venezia), Giordano Bruno Guerri (Vittoriale degli Italiani), Elena Ledda (Ateneo di Salò), Dante Marianacci (Centro nazionale di studi dannunziani, Pescara), Cristina Montagnani (Università di Ferrara), Gianni Oliva (Università D'Annunzio di Chieti), Francesco Perfetti (LUISS di Roma).

Structure

Morning classes take place from Monday to Friday and have an interdisciplinary and comparative nature, focusing on Italian and European elements. Students will be provided in advance with class materials in pdf as well as with the bibliography regarding class topics.

Afternoon seminars will have a formative and specialized character, deepening an aspect linked to the morning lesson, with particular attention, but not exclusive to Gabriele d'Annunzio; seminars will also have a laboratory structure by means of the Vittoriale's documentary resources (libraries, archive of the manuscripts, etc.). During the seminars, students will have an active role; they will have to elaborate presentations in oral and / or written form (the latter previously sent to the School secretary) under the supervision of a tutor.

Summer School Participants

Ideal participants are M.A. University Students, Ph.D. Students, early post-doc researchers, as well as secondary school teachers.

How to apply

To participate, you must send your application to the Secretariat (email address) by attaching your curriculum vitae. The deadline is March 15<sup>h</sup>, 2019. Eventually the Summer School Office will let the candidates know the deadline for sending the transfer of the registration fee (500 euro) with all the indications of the referring Bank. The registration fee includes participation in all the activities of the School.

The School scientific board will take into account the possibility of obtaining scholarships to cover either the registration fee or the accommodation.

The students may stay in affiliated hotels that will be indicated by the Summer School office along with all the necessary information.

The direction of the School is entrusted to the President of Vittoriale Giordano Bruno Guerri and to Professors Pietro Gibellini, Raffaella Bertazzoli, and Elena Ledda.
